

Antiques with Distinction

Bring an added Distinction to your home!

Antiques with Distinction brings a fresh touch to the U.S. market of Imported Fine French Antiques

U.S. Connoisseurs now have an alternative when looking for quality items.

Califon, NJ – September 7, 2007 –

“U.S. Connoisseur won't have to chose anymore between quality and value when it comes to French antiques . ”

U.S. connoisseurs that in the past had to choose between a market that is inundated with reproduction European antiques that may be 100 years old, but may be made with mechanic tools and no with respect to the craft of the period it copies and paying a premium to get quality pieces from a select few NYC dealers.

Antiques with Distinction, LLC is changing this equation.

Antiques with Distinction offers its customers, without compromise, unique quality antiques each with a rich history and quality pieces of art and craftsmanship. Founded in 2007, Antiques with Distinction was created to offer unique quality antiques each rich with history that are quality pieces of art and craftsmanship. Antiques with Distinction offers designers and antique lovers an opportunity to bring added distinction to the new owner's home or office. In addition, each piece is a quality investment, as much as the piece is decorative.

“Antiques with Distinction is comprised of a team of experts that are passionate about the arts, but that are innovative, business-minded importers that focus on reducing the costs of business without compromising quality” says Jerome Chevallier, President of Antiques with Distinction.

Antiques with Distinction has cut out the show room, therefore, customers and designers may browse their portfolio of antiques on a well designed website. Even though the showroom has been cut, all pieces are available for viewing by appointment. Antiques with Distinction is located in the Hunterdon/Morris County, New Jersey area, only one hour west of NYC. Each piece is displayed in a much better environment than a cluttered showroom, which gives the potential buyer a better level of appreciation of their future acquisition. Antiques with Distinction also offers other professional services dedicated to interior designers, including a premium service aimed to locate high end pieces without the use of an expensive international art dealer or to plan high-end antiquing trips to Normandy or the Loire Valley where a customer can meet prestigious dealers, stay in luxury castles hotels and dine at award winning restaurants.

For more information, please contact us at:

Antiques with Distinction, LLC
PO Box 311
Califon, NJ 07830

info@antiqueswithdistinction.com
(908) 998-4919
www.antiqueswithdistinction.com

